

Homework 11

Due in class on Thursday, October 6th.

Don't forget to have your self experiment write-up ready for the afternoon lab. Again we agreed on these points:

1. Explain the goal and purpose of the self experiment
2. Explain the how you planned your time use and compare to your actual time log.
3. What went wrong with the experiment? How did you address these trouble areas.
4. What thoughts and strategies did you develop for getting started and avoiding early obstacles?
5. What did you learn about your specific topic and on goal setting in general?
6. Were your stakes effective? Why or why not?
7. What is your overall reflection on the project
8. (Use figures and fun anecdotes throughout)

To hand in:

1. Memorize a brief poem (of 10 to 20 lines) using any technique you like. If you have trouble deciding on a poem to memorize you can use the Lord Byron poem provided below.
2. Write a paragraph explaining how you memorized the poem.

We'll Go No More A-Roving by Lord Byron

So, we'll go no more a-roving
So late into the night,
Though the heart be still as loving,
And the moon be still as bright.

For the sword outwears its sheath,
And the soul wears out the breast,
And the heart must pause to breathe,
And love itself have rest.

Though the night was made for loving,
And the day returns too soon,
Yet we'll go no more a-roving
By the light of the moon.
